

PEER TEACHING ACTIVITY REPORT

Title: Peer Teaching on “Functions of Parliament”

Date: 31/08/2026

Department: Department of Political Science

College: SVD Government Degree College for Women, Nidadavole

Participants: II B.A. Students

Introduction

The Department of Political Science, SVD Government Degree College for Women, Nidadavole, conducted a Peer Teaching Activity for the students of II B.A. on 31st August 2026. The programme was organized with the objective of encouraging student participation, improving communication skills, and promoting collaborative learning.

Details of the Activity

As part of the Peer Teaching Activity, senior student Anitha delivered a lesson on the topic “Functions of Parliament” to the II B.A. students. She explained the important functions of the Parliament in a clear and systematic manner.

The student teacher discussed various functions of Parliament, such as:

- Legislative Functions
- Financial Functions
- Executive Control
- Constituent Functions
- Electoral Functions
- Judicial Functions
- Deliberative Functions

The session was interactive and informative. The students actively participated in the discussion and gained a better understanding of the role and functions of the Indian Parliament.

Objectives

- To promote peer learning among students.
- To develop teaching and presentation skills.
- To improve communication and leadership qualities.
- To enhance students' understanding of Political Science concepts.
- To encourage active participation in the learning process.

Outcomes

The Peer Teaching Activity helped students to understand the topic “Functions of Parliament” effectively. It also improved the confidence, communication, presentation, and leadership skills of the student teacher. The activity created an interactive learning environment and encouraged collaborative learning among the students.

Conclusion

The Peer Teaching Activity conducted by the Department of Political Science was successful and beneficial. Senior student Anitha effectively explained the topic “Functions of Parliament” to the II B.A. students. The programme provided an opportunity for students to actively participate in the teaching-learning process and enhanced their academic as well as personal skills.

